Claim:

I claim the new and distinct variety of Stonecrop plant, Sedum spectabile 'Samuel Oliphant', essentially as herein described and illustrated, having gray-green leaves with creamy-yellow margins and carmine tips, and long lasting pinkish flowers valuable as a landscaping specimen, potted plant, or cut flower.